

Ulster County Domestic Violence Awareness Night

Wednesday, September 30 at 6:30 p.m. in front (Fair Street side) of the Ulster County Office Building, 244 Fair Street, Kingston, NY 12402

This event begins a month-long (October) Domestic Violence Awareness Campaign. After the last speaker, the County Office Building will be illuminated with purple lights and will be lit every night throughout the month of October, to coincide with the national campaign.

Agenda

6;30 pm Start

- 1. Opening remarks and proclamation: Ulster County Executive Mike Hein
- 2. Roberto Rodriguez: Ulster County Commissioner of Social Services
- 3. Kathleen Moretti: Program Director of Family Domestic Violence Services
- 4. Amy Barasch: Executive Director of the NYS Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence
- 5. The Honorable James Gilpatric, Ulster County Domestic Violence Court Judge and City of Kingston Court Judge
- 6. Teresa Letterio Maxwell - (niece of Tracey Passaro)
- 7. Ulster County District Attorney Holley Carnright
- 8. Karen Winkle (a domestic violence survivor who works for UC Mental Health and as a realtor - and has made a successful life for her self and children)
- 9. Catherine Spiotta (will conclude the speaking portion of the evening, with a poem)

Light County Office Building