COUNTY EXECUTIVE PROMOTES CAREER TRAINING EXPO

Kingston, NY (July 20, 2009) - Citing the need to more closely align workforce training and skills to the needs of existing and emerging businesses in Ulster County, and to assist residents who are seeking employment or changing careers to get the training they need, Ulster County Executive Mike Hein is inviting everyone interested to attend the 2009 Ulster County Career Training Expo. Admission is free and the event will be held on Tuesday, July 28, from 2 to 7 PM at the Ulster County Business Resource Center (BRC) on Ulster Avenue, in Kingston.

“This event represents a wonderful opportunity for employers, educators and people seeking employment or a career change to meet and learn about the great public and private sector training and funding resources available here in Ulster County,” said the County Executive. “Improving workforce skills and training is a critical component of my economic development agenda and integral to improving Ulster County’s competitive position and retaining and attracting good businesses and good jobs.”

The Expo is co-sponsored by the County Executive’s Office, Ulster BOCES, the Ulster County Workforce Development Board, the Ulster County Development Corporation (UCDC), Ulster County Chamber of Commerce, Southern Ulster Chamber and the New Paltz Regional Chamber of Commerce.
