

Ulster County Crisis Support Center

The Crisis Support Center is a 24/7 hub offering compassionate support for individuals of all ages facing emotional or behavioral health crises. As a trusted resource to law enforcement and first responders, we provide a safe alternative to hospitalization or incarceration, helping reduce emergency calls and ensure people in crisis get the care they need—improving outcomes and establishing connections to care.

Services

- Immediate access to whole health assessments
- Motivational interviewing and de-escalation
- Crisis counseling
- Guest-centered care planning
- Recovery and Wellness Education
- Linkages and referrals to external providers
- Peer support and engagement
- Advocacy and follow-up
- Short-term medication management
- First step of detox

To participate:

- 100% voluntary
- Walk-ins welcome
- Guests of all ages are welcome
- No appointment or referral necessary
- Medicaid Reimbursable

Location

Center for Wellbeing, First Floor
368 Broadway
Kingston, NY, 12401

Contact

For general information contact:

Tanisha Castellanos
tcastellanos@people-usa.org
845.529.COPE (2673)
Law Enforcement Line: 845.748.0570

For immediate needs or emergencies:

Call or Text 988

peopleUSA

